

Contour the elevation data at an interval of 10 and infer the location of any faults in the map area.