1:00 PM at the

Tyler Nature Center

11942 FM 848, Tyler

The mission of the Native Plant Society of Texas is to promote conservation, research and utilization of native plants and plant habitats of Texas through education, outreach, and example.

iNaturalist and Citizen Science

Wendy Anderson, Texas Parks and Wildlife

Wendy plans to teach us how to use the iNaturalist app (<https://www.inaturalist.org/pages/about>), and then we will go outside for a short walk around to practice using it. iNaturalist is available for iPhone and Android smartphones through their respective app stores. You might want to load iNaturalist on your phone or tablet before the meeting.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Wendy Anderson is a Nature Tracker Biologist with Texas Parks and Wildlife. She has a passion for conservation and has focused her career on GIS, endangered species conservation, and flora and fauna surveys. She holds a dual masters degree from Indiana University in Environmental Science and Public Affairs, and studied biology and Spanish at Indiana University. Wendy is excited to work with citizen scientists on surveying and monitoring species in Texas.
